

BUMP - Boosting Urban Mobility Plans

Study visits to BUMP pioneer cities

Programme of the day

Place and date: Bristol and Gloucestershire, Friday 26th February 2016

Main contact: Mark Stead, Severn Wye Energy Agency: marks@severnwe.org.uk ; 07814 970199

Morning venue: Bristol City Council Citizen Service Point, 100 Temple Street - Meeting room 454/455

08:30 - Meet in hotel lobby for short walk to the morning venue

08:45: Arrival and refreshments

09:00: Introductions and itinerary (Mark Stead, Severn Wye Energy Agency)

09:05: Institutional welcome address (Neil Bradbury, Programme Director for the Bristol Temple Quarter Enterprise Zone)

09:15: Presentation of the SUMP concept and methodology (Jon Harris, Harris Ethical)

10:00: Presentation of the Bristol SUMP (Oliver Coltman, Bristol City Council)

10:45: Comfort Break

11:00 Visit to the Temple Quarter Enterprise Zone (Oliver Coltman, Bristol City Council)

12:41: Board train from Bristol Temple Meads rail station

13:34: Arrive Gloucester rail station

Afternoon venue: Chairman's room, Shire Hall, Gloucester

14:00: Buffet lunch

14:30: Presentation of the Gloucestershire SUMP (Ben Watts, Gloucestershire County Council; Jon Harris, Harris Ethical; Sarah Fish, Atkins Consultancy)

15:45: Visit to key areas of Gloucester (Ben Watts, Gloucestershire County Council)

16:40: Leave Gloucester rail station

17:35: Arrive Bristol Temple Meads rail station - Finish

